

JUST IN FROM BERLIN

NEWSLETTER, WINTER 2022 EDITION

Liebe Listeners, Fall is slowly transitioning to Winter in Berlin and beyond. As the skies turn grey, we seek the warmth of our tube amps before hitting the road for Capital Audiofest in the US. Here's an update...

01 / Sometimes more is more

Visit us at the Capital Audiofest Nov 11-13 to hear (and feel) what we mean for the US debut of the first expansion to our modular loudspeaker system. Our new .01 Mid-Module turns a 9.87 into a 9.88 —allowing more extension in the musical range where growl, body, and slam reside.

02 / Pre-loved system pricing

This is a rare chance to own a Voxativ system at 30% off. The demo system we are showing next week at CAF22 could be yours with a choice of 9.87, complete 9.88, and/or T805 SET Integrated amp (or combos of the above). We will ship to you worldwide ((or local pick-up in the DC area) after the show on Sunday. Click here for more info and to reserve your item before it's gone.

03 / Audiophile reference system

Steve Guttenberg invites Voxativ into his new reference system. We are thrilled to now play a part in The Audiophile's new choice of reference speaker... and are always proud to be a partner with PureAudioProject. LEARN MORE >

04 / Alberich sang in Seattle

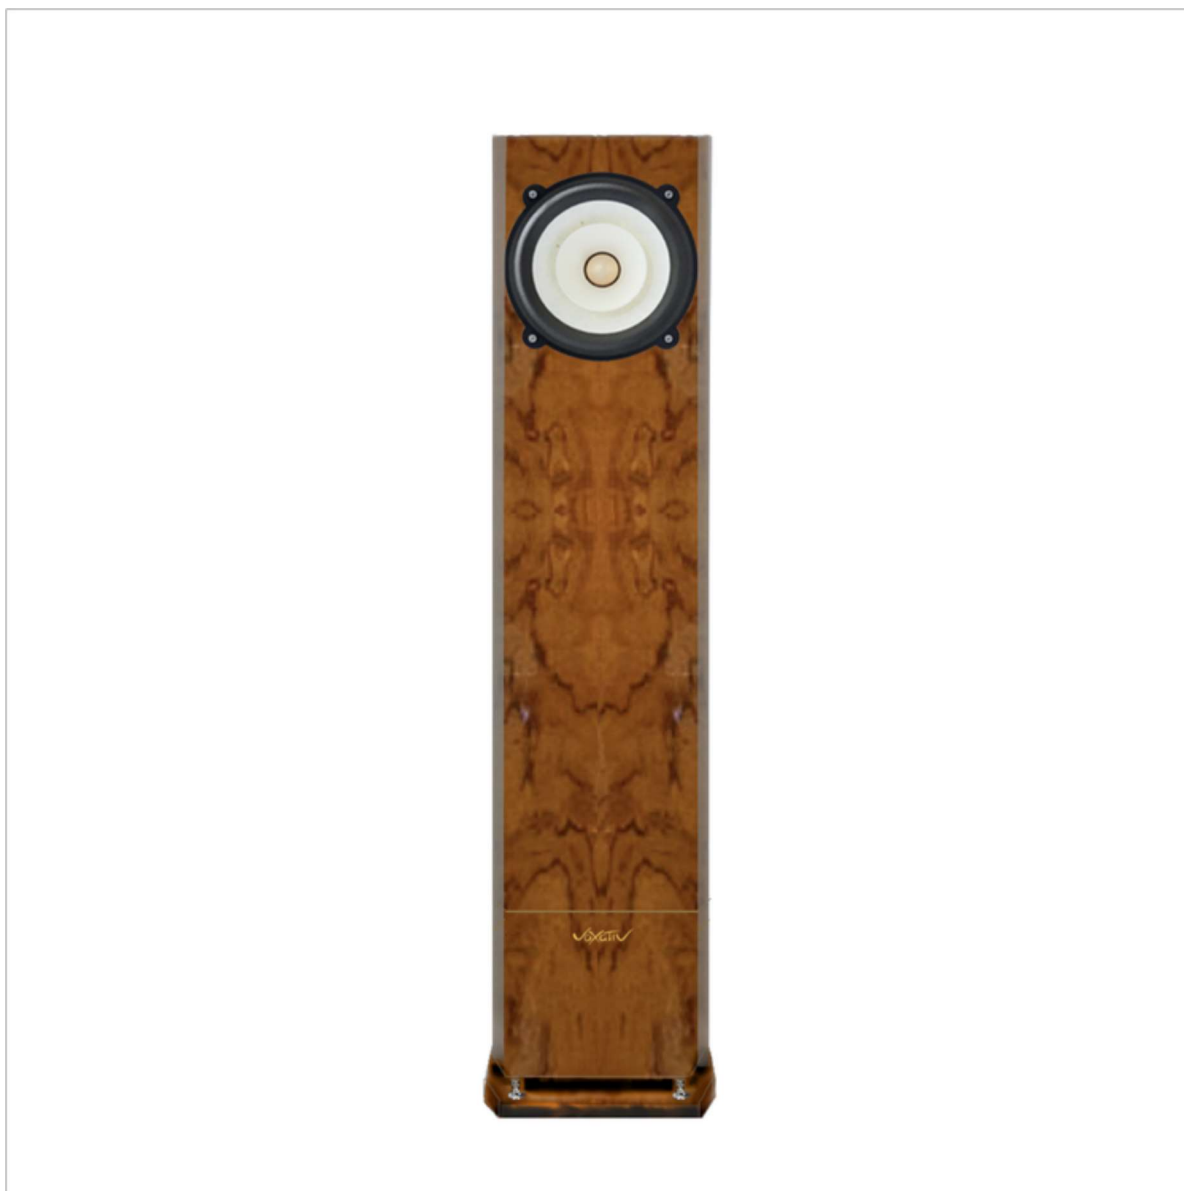

We were excited to exhibit at our first show in the US since 2019 in Seattle, WA at the inaugural Pacific Audio Fest on July 29-31. It was the North American debut of Alberich — a smaller version of our modular concept popularized by our award-winning 9.87 System. Up top is our Hagen monitor with 5" drivers and down below is a new active Ripol bass module.

05 / Zeth looks good in wood

Coming soon: New real wood veneers will be available for our Zeth tower speakers. Contact us here is you'd like to own some of the first batch.

06 / Online store is open

For those without a local dealer, we offer our family of products direct from Berlin. Like the Absolut Hagen all-in-one digital streaming system for $9900.
