The Capital Audiofest Presents:

ANTHONY PIROG

Anthony Pirog knows nothing of stylistic limitations- his music is beyond category, embracing not only jazz, but avant-garde and indie rock, free improvisation, electric sound, and ambient soundscapes.

Pirog has himself established with his work as one-half of the duo Janel & Anthony, the electric jazz improvisational Five Times Surprise, the classic DC-scene twang inspired Music From the Anacostia Delta, and the exciting trio, The Messthetics, with Brendan Canty and Joe Lally, the rhythmic section from Fugazi.
